Worry Warriors

In this camp, students will learn to identify the effects of worry on the body, learn how to label worries, and practice strategies for managing stress.

Cool, Calm, and Connected

In this camp, students will learn how to recognize their feelings and how to regulate them. Students will learn to identify new coping strategies to help them keep calm, "take a pause," and express their emotions effectively.

Keys to Success

In this camp, students will learn how to feel more confident and prepared for the upcoming school year. Students will learn how to cope with common school-related stressors while learning new ways to help them reach academic success.
